1. About 50 officers of all army branches of service, ranking from senior lieutenant to colonel, and about 40 women including 12 wearing uniforms, entered the Adolf Hitler Kaserne, Potsdam (N 53/E 63), between 5:30 and 7 a.m. every day from 16 to 21 August 1950. The officers and the women left the installation about 3 p.m.. The officers went to the hotel on Messestrasse in the Generals' Quarter for dinner, and the women went to the mess in the former 3d Garde Blauen Kaserne. The women later walked to their billets in the Generals' Quarter in Neuer Garten. *

2.                     

3. Between 15 and 19 August 1950 ten groups of about 30 soldiers each were seen daily marching from the Delius Kaserne to Jungfern Lake. The soldiers crossed the lake in a motorboat and debarked at the Koenigswald, where 25 pontoons were berthed. During this period the woods were illuminated until late at night. On 20 August 1950 no troops went across the lake and the woods were not illuminated. The pontoons had been removed. ***

*                      Comment.                      six-week training courses for officers of all branches of service, ranking from lieutenant up to colonel, were conducted in the Adolf Hitler Kaserne.                     

                     200 officers moved from their billets in the Kriegsschule                      hotel on Messestrasse.                      50X1-HUM

***                      Comment. The troops were recruits of the unidentified Ingr Regt of the GORF in the Delius Kaserne and received training in the Koenigswald engineer training area where pontoon training of engineer troops had been held throughout the summer of 1950.
